

Information for local participants in NIMBioS working groups and workshops

Meal reimbursement

Local participants (faculty, staff or area participants who are not in travel status) may be reimbursed for meals that are part of NIMBioS events up to the per diem amount ($28 for dinner) provided an itemized receipt from the restaurant and evidence of payment (such as a credit card receipt) is turned in to Nichole or Jennifer. The receipt should not include alcohol. This applies only to group meals that are part of the meeting including approved meals with meeting organizers.

Parking

Parking is available in UT's Volunteer Hall Garage located at 1525 White Avenue (between James Agee St. and 16 th St.). One guest parking space is also available with a Guest Parking Pass in the parking lot directly behind the NIMBioS building. To obtain the pass, please make arrangements with our office ahead of time.
